3 The point for orders in the Coorumbai Case was whether temporary or Off[g] Service ~~Otta 51~~ prior to ~~a Sub~~ Confirmation in a Substantive appointment counts towards increment.

4 In the present Case, the question is whether period spent in an Substantive Appointment, but on probation without exam a difference in pay Counts towards increment. The precedents quoted by Dr. K. R. K appear to be to the point.

5 The case of these two Officers appears to differ materially from that of Probationary Asst Com[rs], Revenue Probationers & these Officers who are placed on probation in order that they may learn their work.

6 These two officers as also Messrs S. Subba Rao, and B. G. Srinivasa Achary who became appointed after them, were already fully qualified for their duties, and were entrusted with the usual work soon after appointment. The nature of their duties has not been different in any way after their Confirmation. Their pay during the probationary period was the same as after Confirmation. The case of the Professors, Messrs Metcalfe, Ushenaidu & S. Subba Rao appears to be analogous, as they too were entrusted with the same kind of work both during probation and after Confirmation. It appears therefore just that when service during probation counts for increment, it should also count for promotion.

It has also to be noted that, if this principle is not recognised, the Surgeon who entered service later than Mr S. Subba Rao, will become his Senior, as pointed out by the latter in the linked file.

probation is the point for consideration. The decision on the point hinges on the nature of the probation.

10 In the present case, Messrs K. R. Krishnaswamy Iyengar and Karve were appointed on probation for two years. They do not seem to have been entertained with a view to their being trained in their sphere of duties and becoming qualified for their deptt. They were duly qualified men with English qualifications and they were appointed on probation simply to be dispensed with when they, in the words of Col. Smyth late S. Surgeon "cannot supply a real want in the medical Deptt". They were subsequently confirmed and have put in one years approved service subsequent to confirmation. The Statement furnished by the Senior Surgeon of offices of his Deptt who were given promotions from one class to another shows shows that full three years' service subsequent to confirmation was not insisted

13 Considering the very favourable terms which these gentlemen have got as regards starting pay, I think the rule should be strictly interpreted in their cases & three years' service after confirmation should be required for promotion to the higher (1st) class. The cases mentioned by the Senior Surgeon clearly shew that in the past, the date of confirmation has been the starting point. The case of educational officers is different because ~~in their case~~ there it is a case of annual increment and there is frequently a definite ~~understanding~~ understanding that even during the probationary period, which is fairly long, ~~annual~~ increments would be allowed. 15 Strictly speaking according to the terms of their appointment neither Mr. R. Krishnaswamy Iyer nor Mr. Kaye are entitled to have their probationary period taken into consideration in calculating the period required for them to claim confirmation to the next higher grade. The Financial Secretary's views are therefore correct.

16 It has been pointed out by the Asst Secretary in D.4 of the note a rigorous application of the rule may lead to some unintentional supersession. In the case of Mr Sinn who was altogether the probationary period had been fixed at only one year while in the case of Officers appointed before him the probationary period is made two years.

17 To avoid these anomalies, I think that ~~the the~~ one years' probationary period may in the case of those of the Officers viz Mr C. R. K Iyengar Mr Rowe & Mr Subba Roo may be allowed to count and it may be clearly laid down that hereafter probationary period will not count as qualifying for promotion

27 I have reconsidered the matter in the light of further information received and I am inclined to think that three years' approved service from date of joining duty should entitle these England returned Medical Officers to get their first increments for the following reasons:-

(1). They take up their appointments fully qualified and do not learn work after joining service like the Probationary Assistant Commissioners.

(2). The prospects of Medical and Sanitary Officers in British India are much better Representations from Messrs. K.R.Krishna swamy Iyengar, J.V. Karve and S.Subba Rao regarding the treatment of their probationary period.

These papers relate to representations from Messrs.K.R. Krishnaswamy Iyengar, J.V. Karve and S. Subba Rao praying that service rendered by them during their probationary period may be counted towards the three years' approved service required by the standing orders to entitle them for promotion from the second to the 1st class of Assistant Surgeons.

2. The statement given below contains the names of officers who were given a special start on account of their European qualifications in recent years, the probationary period prescribed in each case and the date of confirmation : --

| Name and rank. | Date of joining duty. | Probationary period | Date of confirmation. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Mr.K.R.K.Iyengar, M.B.Ch.B.(Edin) D.P.H. (London) | 22-5-1911 | 2 years. | 22-5-1913 |
| Mr.J.V.Karve, M.B., Ch.B. (Edin) D.P.H. (London) | 23-5-1911 | | 23-5-1913 |

| Name and rank. | Date of joining duty | Proba-tionary period. | Date of confirm-ation. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Mr.S.Subba Rao, B.A., M.B. & C.M., D.P.H., L.R.C.P. (London) & M.R.C.S.(England) | 15-2-1912 | 2 years | 14-2-1914 |
| Mr.B.C. Srinivasacharya, B.A., M.B.C.M., F.R.C.S., (Edin) D.O., (Oxon) | 15-1-1913 | 1 year | 15-1-1914. |

3. From the above statement it is clear that the fact that the probationary period was fixed at only one year in the case of the last officer (Mr.B.C.Srinivasacharya) has given him an advantage over Mr.Subba Rao by enabling him to earn his confirmation before the latter, though he is his junior by 12 months. The question as to how such inequality of treatment could be avoided was therefore taken up for consideration.

(Pages 6-7 of Office Note (Med. 29-13).

4. The Financial Secretary who was consulted considers that, in view of the very favourable starting pay given to these officers the rule should be strictly interpreted in their cases and that that 3 years' service after confirmation should be required for their promotion to the first class of Assistant Surgeons.

5. I was at first inclined to the opinion that as all these officers entered service fully qualified and had no work to learn during the probationary period they may be allowed to draw their first increment after three years' approved service from date of joining duty but after further discussing the matter in Council, I have agreed to the suggestion of the other Members that as only Mr. S.Subba Rao will have a legitimate grievance if Mr. Srinivasacharya is allowed to earn his next increment a month before ~~Mr. S.Subba Rao~~ the former it was enough to accelerate the next promotion of Mr.S.Subba Rao by one month so as to maintain his position in the cadre with reference to Mr.Srinivasacharya. As regards the representation of Messrs.K.R.Krishnaswamy Iyengar and J.V. Karve, the former has since resigned and the case of the latter may be dealt with under the ordinary rules under which probationary period unless it is so expressly laid down is not allowed to count for increments.

5. The opinion recorded in Council on the 29th January 1915 may therefore be approved.

I have the honor to forward herewith, for the orders of Government, a copy of letter dated 23rd May 14, from Mr. K.R. Krishnasawmy Iyengar, Assistant Chemical Examiner, praying that he may be promoted to the 1st Class of Assistant Surgeons on Rs 300/- reckoning his two years' probationery period towards the 3 years service necessary to entitle him to such promotion.

2. As regards the several examples quoted by Mr. Krishnasawmy Iyengar, none of them, except Mr. N.S. Nanjundaiya, belongs to the Medical Department. Mr Nanjundaiya received his first promotion on 3rd July 1912, two years after the date of his confirmation, prior to which he had put in nearly 4 years' temporary or probationery service. The subjoined statement will show that in the case of the officers named therein, first promotion was given only after two years' or 3 years' approved service, reckoned from the date of their confirmation.
